About CRSP Research Data Products

Center for Research in Security Prices (CRSP), originally established at the University of Chicago in 1960, is widely recognized as a leading provider of research quality historical market and returns data. Built on rigorous academic standards, its research data products are trusted by academic, commercial, and government institutions worldwide that rely on accurate, transparent data for meticulous financial analysis, economic research, and policy development where precision and historical continuity are essential.

In February 2026, Morningstar completed the acquisition of CRSP, integrating CRSP's research data products—renowned for their academic rigor, historical depth, and accuracy—into Morningstar's global data and research platform. This combination enhances Morningstar's equity research capabilities while continuing CRSP's legacy of providing high quality data to support institutional research, benchmarking, and investment decision making.
